

Official Adoption Agreement For the

DIRECT SUPPORT OF SEMINARY PROFESSOR SERGIO FRITZLER - LAC

Project #A16156-20701-448

The Lord has blessed the Dominican Republic Lutheran Mission (DRLM) by providing not only missionary pastors from the LCMS, but also native Spanish-speaking pastors from our sister churches throughout Latin America. Pastor Sergio Fritzler comes to the Dominican Republic from Argentina with 18 years of experience as a church planting pastor, professor and seminary director. He currently serves in the DRLM as Pastor of our church plant in Licey, Santiago, Dominican Republic and as a Professor and Provost of Concordia Reformer Seminary. The Licey congregation recently dedicated its new facility which includes a sanctuary and Lutheran pre-school of over 70 students. Pastor Fritzler's work there includes weekly preaching and Bible studies as well as an emphasis on evangelistic visitation.

As Professor of Theology at Concordia Reformer Seminary, Pastor Fritzler teaches classes on Pastoral Theology, Liturgy, Homiletics and Evangelism. As Provost he oversees the educational affairs and activities of the institution for residential pastoral formation. In partnership with our sister seminary, Concordia Theological Seminary in Ft. Wayne, Pastor Fritzler oversees our SMP on-line pastoral formation program which serves more than 20 students throughout Latin America.

Pastor Fritzler lives in Santiago with his wife, Lillian, and their two teenage sons, Enzo and Martín. As an alliance missionary, Rev. Fritzler's ministry is sustained through direct project funds rather than the North American Network Supported Missionary Model. Support is needed to continue to provide for the Fritzler missionary family as they serve alongside OIM missionaries in the Dominican Republic.
