

La Biblia en Español

Pero él será herido por
nuestros pecados;
¡molido por nuestras
rebeliones!
Sobre él vendrá el castigo de
nuestra paz,
y por su llaga seremos
sanados.

Isaías 53:5

But he was pierced for our
transgressions,
he was crushed for our
iniquities;
the punishment that brought
us peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are
healed.

Isaiah 53:5

Conclusion of Home Service

Our home service came to an end on the 22nd of March, and we made it back just in time for Holy Week. Thank you again to everyone who welcomed us and heard about the work we are doing in Mexico City. Especially we give thanks for the members of St. Paul's in Melrose MN. Rev. David and Ashley Mommens are always excellent at making us feel welcome. Thank you to Louise Green and everyone at the Wayne Zone LWML. We enjoyed being among such mission minded women. Thank you to everyone from my Father's former church Bethlehem and Zion – North Shelton. It was wonderful seeing all of you after such a long absence. Thank you for the love you continue to have for my family. We can never give enough praise to missionary Gary and the good folks at Mission Central. What you do for missionaries is special and essential for our work on the field. Thank you so much for all of your care and support. Last but not least, thank you to the pastors of the Algona circuit for letting me be with you for your circuit meeting. It was a blessing to be among you. To all those who pray for us and support us, we thank you. God's blessings to you!

Back in Mexico

We hit the ground running back in Mexico City, arriving the Thursday before Palm Sunday. The Palm Sunday service at Buen Pastor included a processional with palm branches. On Maundy Thursday, we enjoyed a Seder meal. Our Good Friday service focused on the seven words of Jesus from the cross. It is great being back and seeing everyone at Buen Pastor.

Happy Birthday, Charlotte!

In the midst of Holy Week, we celebrated Charlotte's 3rd birthday on the 28th. We asked Charlotte what she wanted to do for her birthday and being a three year old, she has simple tastes. We spent the morning at a nearby park, and celebrated that afternoon eating strawberry cake with the Conrad family.

Thank you all so much for remembering us in your prayers and supporting our efforts here. We hope that your Easter celebrations have been filled with reminders of our risen Lord. Thanks again!
