

Official Adoption Agreement For the

Direct Support of Hispanic Outreach in Siouxland
 Through the work of Hope Lutheran in South Sioux with Rev. Michael Awe and Hispanic Missionaries Rev. Henry and Ruthie Witte working to reach the lost!

Project #281-16-009

The Lord is sending many, many Hispanic people to the area of Siouxland, which includes the areas of Sioux City, Iowa and South Sioux City, Nebraska. Both congregations in Iowa and Nebraska are reaching out to bring the message of our Savior Jesus to these immigrants that God is bringing right here to our community.

This is a wonderful "mission opportunity" to bring the real Jesus to these new people in our area. Both Iowa District West and the Nebraska District are working cooperatively through the efforts of Rev. Michael Awe of Hope Lutheran Church of South Sioux City, Nebraska as, they have in their congregation called Veteran Hispanic Missionaries, Rev. Henry & Ruth Witte, who served so faithfully many years in South America and Latin America as deployed Missionaries.

Now, through a definite outreach plan, utilizing English Classes, special events, Bible Studies, and special programs specifically designed for the Hispanic Community a NEW EFFORT to reach out in a NEW way to bring the Holy Spirit and HIS power to touch the lives of the people that God is sending here. Please pray for this NEW effort, that God will bless this ministry and bring many new people to know Jesus !!!
