SERVING THE LORD IN TAIWAN

Visitors

On April 13, Dr. Al Collver (LCMS Church Relations Director) visited seminary president Dr. Samuel Liu. Appreciative of the cordial conversation about China Lutheran Seminary, Dr. Collver invited Pres. Liu to visit his office this summer in St Louis at the International Center.

Nanjing, China's Jingling Seminary sent professors (left) to visit China Lutheran Seminary faculty (right) to build good relations and learn about each other's theological education on April 26.

I had a joyful opportunity to see some former students when I preached at Peace Lutheran Church in the Taipei area on April 22.

Our Counseling Small Group visited our home for Mexican Burritos (made by Maggie) on May 23.

I had a very fulfilling visit to Asia Lutheran Seminary (WELS) in Hong Kong on May 16 with Hong Kong Pastor K. K. Fung. We met with President Steven Witte (left) and Academic Dean Glen Thompson (with tie).

We celebrated Isaac's 11th Birthday with his classmates, where Maggie prepared cupcakes that they decorated themselves (along with their faces).

I recently saw this interesting warning on a neighborhood bulletin board. It tells people not to litter (esp. cigarette butts), warning that the gods see the action of littering!
