

Official Adoption Agreement For the

Direct Support of Mission Seminary Support-SA

Project #A16156-20701-400

The LCMS has two partner church bodies in South Africa, the Lutheran Church in Southern Africa (LCSA) and the Free Evangelical Lutheran Church in Southern Africa (FELSISA). These two churches in partnership with the Mission of Lutheran Churches in Germany and the LCMS, provide a seminary for students from all over Africa for seminary training. The LCSA currently has an estimated 24,000 members served by 45 pastors serving in 54 parishes and 175 congregations. The FELSISA has over 2500 members served by 20 pastors. Students from all over Africa attend the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Tshwane. Many of the emerging Lutheran church bodies in Africa do not yet have the capability of providing theological education for their own seminarians.

This project provides seminary support for administration and teaching so that these students are prepared to be ordained by their sending church bodies. LTS fills an important niche in preparing people for ministry all through Africa.
