Him We Proclaim

These last two months give us a natural lead-in to share our personal testimony... We tell them that folks (you) back home will be asking, "Did you share your Story with them? How did they respond?" Pray with us for these openings...

Boon and Opal...

We knew our relationship was developing when they invited us to meet their cats-- A roomful!!

Boon and Opal continue to delight us with their eagerness to learn and their beginning steps of faith.

Kai and After-school...

Waan not only plays the ukulele, he helps the children with difficult words. 'Grandma' Margot tells the story of the Gingerbread Boy.

What could be more fun than decorating our gingerbread cookies? Eating them, of course!

Aerobics Ladies... Ni, Lekki, Moo, Jumsi, Mot, Noriya, and Dang...

I promised Mot (pink shoes) we would come for aerobics this Friday, not just the breakfast afterward... If you look real closely, you might see Margot in the back row.

Friends from the Cafe

In appreciation Ann and Koong gave us a guided tour of Nakhon Pathom, where we visited two floating markets, enjoyed lunch on a river boat, and toured a beautiful temple. We could not have asked for a more picture-perfect day.

Friend from ‘No-Name’ Restaurant

Ning has a gentle disposition and a warm heart. Unprompted, she offered to contribute pillows for the low-income school children. Recently she has begun to open up with more confidence.

Friends from the Tenement

Margot is helping this little boy read the Bible. He is one among 30 (or so) tenement children who come to classes every Saturday morning.

Margot’s new friend Eart just turned 12. She asked what he would like for his birthday. And guess what? A football!!

Closing Prayer

As our tour ‘closes out’, we reflect on our prayer coming in— 1) Lord, open our eyes to see those who are seeking Jesus, and 2) Use us to help them find Jesus. In many cases we won’t see the outcome until we reach Heaven. In others we can see deepening friendships and the beginnings of faith.

I’m thanking you, God, out in the streets, singing your praises in town and country. Ps 108:3

In His service, George & Margot
