

Jukka is Leaving

Dr. Jukka Kaariainen accepted a call to be Mission Theologian for the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church, starting January 1, 2019. We so value this last seven years of his service in Taiwan. God has blessed us wonderfully through him! We will miss him, but pray for God's fullest blessing upon him and his family in their upcoming move and new ministry!

Dr. Henry Rowold presents a book from his library to CLS President Samuel Liu, representing the 3,000 plus books he donated to the China Lutheran Seminary library (his personal library). He was our guest of honor and speaker for our Reformation Celebration and Seminary Anniversary Worship Service on October 31.

Asia LCMS OIM Coworkers pose for a photo during our September 18-20 annual WORKGROUP meeting at our new Asia headquarters in the S. Taiwan city of Chiayi.

Taiwan partners joined us:
Pastors Michael Wu and Alexander Wu.

Breakout meeting of Theological Educators: Professors Dan Jastram, John
Cima, Mike Paul, Hans Trinklein, Larry
Steve Oliver.

This large Buddhist monastery is right next door to our Chiayi headquarters.

Preparing to lead worship for our coworker meeting in the chapel of our Chiayi headquarters.

Pray for my December 16-21 Cambodia trip and Isaac (11) who will be accompanying me for the first time, for Maggie leading the children’s Christmas program, our family and for all our Asia Coworkers and Partners.
