For the

THE WORK IN HONDURAS FOR JESUS

Project #65006

God is faithful! He is extending the reach of His kingdom work in the country of Honduras, Central America, through national church workers. Several years ago a group of farmers from Auburn, Nebraska took God at His Word and believed in the need to proclaim Jesus as Lord and Savior in Honduras. From humble beginnings the Holy Spirit has called people to gather in faith communities in Comayagua and La Paz.

The planted seeds of the Gospel now bear fruit as children and adults have been baptized and instructed in sound Lutheran doctrine through ongoing activities of Christian education. A rustic family house has been remodeled into a beautiful chapel for worship in the neighborhood of Villa Los Laureles in Comayagua. Honduran Deacon Tulio Meza leads ministry for children and youth. All the members of the young fellowship regularly reach out to their community with works of mercy.

Pastor Junior Martinez, a missionary from Nicaragua, leads the Gospel outreach efforts in La Paz together with his wife, Rosa, and children. A partnership of congregations from Florida, Georgia, Nebraska, and Colorado has established the FORO for Honduras ministry.

Your gifts in support of this project will help national church workers to train more Hondurans to share the message of God's perfect love, the forgiveness of sins, and the promise of salvation by the sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary's cross.
