Direct Support of Mission

Regional Theological Education for Pakistani Seminary Students

Project #PK0001

Eight to ten Pakistani seminary students are looking to earn at a minimum a Bachelor of Divinity, preferably, a Master of Divinity, to revive a faithful confessional Lutheran Church in Pakistan. The goal in the first year is to bring the students to Odessa, Ukraine, in Sept. 2019 to participate in an orientation on what is required for a legitimate Lutheran seminary education, followed by Seminary course work through a newly accredited English language seminary curriculum offered by LCMS partner church, the Ev. Luth. Church of Latvia, at their Riga Luther Academy Seminary. Upon earning their degree these students will devote themselves to Lutheran ministry in Pakistan, a country into which LCMS missionaries would have a difficult if not impossible time working in due to various political factors between Pakistan and the USA.
