Project # A16155-69263

Rev. Carl M. Hanson is the Pastor of the International Congregation at Seoul, South Korea.

He is a native Iowan and went to school at Mount Olive Lutheran School in Des Moines, Iowa. After completing his studies at Iowa State University with a BS in Physics and Math in 1985, he then left for Taiwan, where his missionary journey began. From 1986 through 1991, Pastor Hanson served as a lay missionary with the overseas Volunteer Youth Ministry program. Fully understanding that the Lord was calling him in a special way, he enrolled at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri in 1991. In 1997 the board for Mission Services called Pastor Hansen and Chenhsi Li to evangelistic work in Hong Kong, leading Bible Studies and Sunday Schools, as well as training and equipping leaders of the church.

Pastor Hansen met his wife, Chenhsi Li, while serving in Taiwan. Chenhsi graduated from Fu-Jen University, Taipei, with a BS in Nutrition and food Science in 1989.

They would ask for your prayers and your support that God would grant them strength, wisdom and courage to witness boldly to the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to the people of Korea.
