“Let the little children come to me...heaven belongs to such as these.” Matthew 19:14

What a lovely Sunday School class! The children at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran church in Greenville, Wisconsin sang for the congregation to begin service.

Salutations and God’s blessings to you all!

Aren’t they adorable! Our last few visits we were treated to children singing praises to God. Their sweet voices filled the church, and they were so excited to be singing for everyone. We spent five days in Merrill, Wisconsin. While there we presented at chapel to children in grades 4k-8th grade. After the presentation we went into classrooms where we got to answer the student’s questions about missions. Kipp and I presented to a kindergarten class where we joined the children in an activity that exhibited how to be disciples of God. We also presented to a youth group where a couple of young men had questions about the call process. It was so inspiring to see, hear and interact with such faith-filled young people.

The mission will be teaching English to Ukrainian church workers. If they know English, they will have access to a multitude of resources at their fingertips.

May God bless and keep you all.
