

Official Adoption Agreement For the

ALPHA AND OMEGA PARSONAGE—TOGO

Project # TG0003

“Unless the Lord builds the house,
those who build it labor in vain.”
(Psalm 127:1)

In northern Togo, the Lutheran church has grown despite influences from false and traditional religions. Over the last 20 years, the congregation of Alpha and Omega has become a recognized part of the community in the growing city of Dapoang.

To help grow the Church and strengthen the faith of its members, the congregation felt it was important for the pastor to live close to the church to lead bible studies, receive visitors, and help the needs of the many people who traverse this town. The congregation has contributed their own resources to construct a parish home for the pastor, but lack resources to provide a metal door, windows, utilities and roofing. This project aims to provide resources to complete the parish home for the pastor and his family to allow their close proximity to share the Gospel with this church, community, and sojourners.
