Orientation and Fellowship

HI! I'M TIRZAH

(TUR-ZA)

EH!

Fun fact: I'm Canadian! I was born and raised in Windsor, ON, Canada and I'm the youngest of 9 kids (well.. my twin brother is ONLY 2 minutes older!).

Eh! – Yes, it is a very common phrase used in Canada, but there is a proper and improper way to use it.

Good – “It’s a pretty nice day today, eh”?

Bad – “How are you doing, eh”?

Eh – Definition: an interrogative utterance, usually expressing surprise or doubt or seeking confirmation.

TRAVEL STATS (for September)

58+ Hours driving

700+ People talked to

150+ Phone calls made

A week of learning and fellowship

The first week of August was spent in St. Louis, Missouri learning everything and anything about our upcoming missionary service. For example, some of the things we learned about was how to build a support network, how to access our emails - even how to talk in front of people!

It was an intense week in which we learned a lot but also enjoyed time to fellowship. We met many of our wonderful support people who work in the LCMS International Center.

Dominican Republic (DR)

The Dominican flag is the only flag to have a bible on it! If you look closely below the yellow cross is an open bible. Many believe that the Bible is open to John 8:32, which reads, "Y la verdad os hará libre." Which translates to – “And the truth shall make you free.” The center is a white cross representing salvation, the blue symbolizing liberty and the red for the blood of heroes.

SPANISH WORD OF THE MONTH: We'll start with an easy one many of you may already know: Happy - Feliz (feh-leees)

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

- Safe travels as I go from city to city across the USA
- Strength, wisdom and patience as I continue to build a support network.
- Please pray for the Bahamas as they continue to recover from hurricane Dorian.

GIVE THANKS FOR:

- Give thanks for God's timing in everything.
- Give thanks for the support from the LCMS International mission team who work diligently to support me.
- Give thanks for the opportunity to serve Jesus Christ in the Dominican Republic.

PRAISE GOD FOR:

- The blessing and joy of meeting fellow brothers and sisters in Christ! What a privilege to meet fellow Christians across North America!

September Blessing

One of the highlights of September was the ordination of Concordia the Reformer Seminary student Pastor Yban Navarro! He is the third Dominican pastor to be ordained. Praise be to God! Pastor Navarro will serve in the community of Licey (in the Dominican Republic) at Cordero de Dios church.

Week 2 of orientation was late September and Jamielynn Tinkey – (my fellow nurse in Latin America) and my twin brother, James Krey joined our class as they transitioned from short term missionaries to career missionaries!

I want to thank everyone who has met, hosted, supported and taken the time to get to know me these past two months. I have had a marvelous time meeting so many of my brothers and sisters in Christ and am looking forward to continuing to meet and partner with you around North America!
