Direct Support of

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION FOR CHURCHES IN ASIA

Project # AM0001-62011

While many LCMS partner churches in Asia have seminaries, many lack the resources to gather pastors and church leaders for theological instruction.

LCMS partners in Asia regularly request theological conferences. Churches throughout Asia have received instruction in music, church structure and theology.

One young Lutheran church body received a week of intensive training on the book of Romans.

In another country, as citizens prepared to vote on same-sex marriage, one church body received a series of lectures on a biblical view of sexuality. The local citizens outnumbered the church members (who also came!).

This project helps provide theological education with our Lutheran partners in Asia. It helps provide for events such as The All-Asia conference where church leaders come together to learn from each other, encourage one another and be trained in Lutheran identity. The All-Asia conference gathers faithful Lutheran church leaders across Asia into conversation with each other to show them they do not confess Christ alone.

When you support theological conferences in Asia, you help build, shore up and encourage church bodies all over Asia.
