

SERVING THE LORD IN

UKRAINE

NEWS FROM THE BEAUDOINS

April 2020

Kipp.Beaudoin@lcms.org Tamara.Beaudoin@lcms.org

This is St. Paul's Cathedral in Odessa, Ukraine. We are blessed with calling this our workplace. Well, as you know, we got here in the start of the quarantine. Lately things have gotten more restrictive. We did our shopping at the open-air markets. Now they have closed them.

Alex, who is the assistant to the bishop, knew we did our shopping at these markets and was concerned for us. He picked us up, and we drove an hour northeast of our home. Alex took us shopping in a district by his home so we could pick up some essentials. The store, called Metro, was like a big supermarket in the States. Everyone here has been so good to Kipp and I. They care for us, and we for them. It seems to be an instant bond.

We continue to teach English classes five days a week. We have even picked up a few new students. Given the restrictions this is very rewarding for us.
