Project ET0002-61713

“Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28)

Mekane Yesus Seminary in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia trains pastors in a catchment area for about 10 million Lutherans. A Masters in Theology is provided. Currently the Mekane Yesus church has almost 14,700 congregations with only 4,700 pastors. This project provides scholarships to complete one of a two-year accredited program in Addis Ababa allows pastors to lead and instruct other pastors in various colleges and training centers and addresses the shortage of pastors within the remote areas of this largely agricultural nation. Cost for a student to participate in the Master’s of Theology program is about USD $2,575 per year.
