LCEA ST. PETER'S SEMINARY - HIMO, TANZANIA

Project TZ0001-61066

“Keep watch over yourselves and all of the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28)

The Lutheran Church of East Africa has established St. Peter’s Seminary in the town of Himo, Tanzania to serve their conservative church. This small school provides instruction to a cohort of up to fifteen students in a four-year course leading to their ordination in the LCEA. The cohort studies all the way through the course to graduation before another intake of students is done. Seminary students are able to study at St. Peter’s and remain close to home and their home congregations where they are likely already serving as lay leaders. Supporting this seminary allows the church to provide ordained servants to their congregations across Tanzania.
