Project #AA0014-61422

“And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. "He who has believed and has been baptized shall be saved; but he who has disbelieved shall be condemned.” (Mark 16:15-16)

In many parts of Africa, many communities live in fear as they practice traditional African religions, animism and non-Christian religions. Many church bodies have asked the LCMS for help to train men from various parts of their country to undergo a short training course and return to their respective villages and areas as evangelists to help reach people with the Gospel. This often results in the planting of new congregations where no Lutheran church existed, and who in turn construct their own church building. A local church contributes to the training through pastoral instructors, lodging and food expenses. The LCMS provides teaching materials and sometimes missionary instructors. This project helps provide for the printing and distribution of coursework used by many to train evangelists in the short term and provide candidates for shepherd pastors who help build and grow the Church.
