LCU CHURCH WORKER SUPPORT FUND - UGANDA

Project UG0002-61209

“Keep watch over yourselves and all of the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28)

The Lutheran Church of Uganda is graduating its first class of pastors this year from its own seminary. These 20 or so men will be returning to their primarily rural congregations eager to preach the Word and administer the sacraments to God's people. Many of them and their families sacrificed dearly in order to send them to seminary, with livelihoods at home suffering in their absence. The Lutheran Church of Uganda is eager to provide avenues for support of these men as they enter the pastoral ministry. This project allows the church to provide their church workers with occasional financial support for desperate situations to enable them to focus on the ministry before them.
