

Greetings from Taiwan! The Ferry Family arrived safely back in Taiwan in early February, and was immediately put into two weeks of quarantine. We had seven COVID tests in total over three weeks, but received a clean bill of health and have resumed normal life here. We are glad to be home and settled back in. Here are some glimpses of life since we departed the United States after our incredible months-long visit:

Above: Caylee gets used to wearing a mask on the bus ride out of Wisconsin. No exceptions, even for babies!

Below: Gathering with church partners in Taipei (and with LCMS missionary Michael Paul) to celebrate the new Book of Concord in Chinese!

Above: Caleb and Caitlin get back to work in Catechesis with Daddy in his office.

Left: The Ferry kids celebrate being back in Chiayi by playing at the baseball park across the street.

Below: Charlotte and Chloe resume Chinese class with Teacher.

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

- Re-integration to life in Taiwan after our time in the USA recently.
- Cheryl and the kids as they resume Chinese classes and homeschooling.

GIVE THANKS FOR:

- Safe travels back to Taiwan, where our Lord has placed us through you, His church.
- The preservation of our home here during our many months away.
- Our incredible network of partners who provide such gracious and generous resources.

Ferry Family Update

Cassandra turned 8 years old during our quarantine time in February. Despite the fact that we were separated and locked-in, she still made the most of the special day. Here she poses with the “cake” assembled by sisters Chloe and Carissa, from the snacks and crackers in the room. Can you see the “8” they made from the cookies?

Momma Cheryl also had a birthday during our quarantine days. The girls insisted on “making” her a cake out of the snacks, just like they did for Cassie. Can you see the number that indicates her age?

Charlotte’s birthday was our third special day during quarantine. But at least hers was during our days locked-in at home just before it ended. Charlotte turned four years old, and wanted a doggie on her cake. Momma was more than happy to make it now that we were back in our own kitchen.
