

Sam Borgwardt- Serving the Lord in Asia

Grace and peace to all of you through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! The LCMS Asia region continues to Spread the Gospel, Plant Lutheran Churches and Show Mercy throughout Asia; with a distinct emphasis on connecting people to their local Lutheran church where they can continue to hear God's Word and receive His Sacraments.

With other LCMS missionaries in Hong Kong

Throughout the month of June, I was blessed to assist in the translation of the Divine Service every Sunday at our local Lutheran congregation in Chiayi. The local China Evangelical Lutheran Church (CELC) congregation is called Salvation Lutheran and is shepherded by Rev. Alex Wu. Pr. Wu is a faithful Lutheran pastor, and his preaching is all about Christ crucified for all. Please hold him and Salvation Lutheran in your prayers, that the Lord would continue to use them to preach the Gospel to many in Taiwan.

In June I also had the opportunity to visit with our brothers in The Lutheran Church—Hong Kong Synods (HKS). The HKS' Literature Department has faithfully been translating Luther's Works into Chinese. The LCMS is proud to assist with this HKS-led project and augment the work where we can. It was a blessing to meet with the HKS Literature Department and the faithful pastors that work there. Please pray that the HKS Literature Department continues to be faithful to the original text of Luther's Works, and the translators and editors are faithful in their Lutheran theology. Please also pray that the Chinese Edition of Luther's Works may reach many in the Chinese speaking populations with the Gospel of Jesus Christ crucified for their sins, and that the Lord would call many to faith through His work in The Hong Kong Synod's Literature Department.

Lunch with the leadership of The Lutheran Church – Hong Kong Synod. Join me in thanking the Lord for these faithful brothers in Christ!
