Please Pray...

- 1. Next week the verdict of the constitutional court is expected to be released. Large crowds of supporters and detractors are expected and we have heard that our street will be one of the major gathering points as the president lives just less than a mile from the church. They are planning to have 14,000 police on hand to control the crowds so that gives you a sense of the size and scope of these protest rallies. Please pray for peace. Like many situations today, half support and half are against and not many are in between. Everyone seems to be very passionate about the outcome. CH – Hong Kong

- 3. For the faith of our new church members and for more members. RM – Puerto Rico

- 6. For the spreading of the Gospel in Palmar Arriba, Dominican Republic, as we work with a baseball league and visits to non-truly Christian (people who say they're Christian but they go more often to the dentist than to any church). RW – Dominican Republic
- 7. For Shude, who has terminal cancer and has heard the Gospel a lot in the hospital, but still does not yet confess faith or desire Baptism. Please pray that God's Word and Spirit would grant him repentance and faith. MP - Taiwan
- 8. For Vicar Bruce W. who had bleeding in his brain and is having complications as a result. Please pray for his wife and young children as well. MP - Taiwan
- 9. For Amy, who recently attended Church with us. Please pray that God would lead her to desire regular contact with God's Word, and that God would grant her Christian faith. MP - Taiwan
- 10. For our family to recuperate and have solid health. Our family (and many other missionaries in the Dominican Republic) have a bronchial virus that keeps coming back. My husband and I have been sick for the last 3 weeks. JL – Dominican Republic

- 12. For the Lutheran Synod of Mexico. DC – Latin America
